The present arrangement in the Civil Lists is defective. The departments are not properly arranged. Please call some one to compare the arrangements in other Civil Lists & put up a note for a more logical arrangement of departments. The classification of depts made in the Annual Vote may be consulted.

10. The Civil List appears to be open to improvement both in point of its contents and of the arrangement of the several Depts.

11. As regards the contents of the Civil List there appears to be ~~[illegible]~~ no rule defining what classes of officers should be shown therein, with the result that a Probationary Sub-Registrar on a pay of Rs 20 finds a place in it while a Supt. of the Govt. Secrt. or the Shirastadar of a Dy. Comrs Office does not. This is somewhat anomalous; but the anomaly is not peculiar to the Mysore Civil List, as the names of such Ministerial officers do not appear in the Civil Lists of certain British Indian Provinces such as Madras & Bombay

D. P. W.

The Civil Lists of certain Native States, Gwalior and Travancore for instance, contain the names of officials of similar status.

2. The anomaly could ~~be~~ explained if the names of ministerial officers ~~had~~ are ~~been~~ consistently omitted throughout, as in the ~~Complete~~ Civil Lists of the British Indian provinces referred to above. But the Mysore Civil list contains a long list of P. W. Railway accountants drawing a pay of Rs. 50 & above & it is not clear on what principle these officials are included.

3. It will ~~have~~ be seen that neither the fact of an official belonging to a ministerial establishment nor his getting a small pay is the reason for his name not being mentioned in the Civil list at present.

14. It is suggested for consideration whether a general rule may not be laid down to regulate this matter viz. that all Gazetted Officers in the manner of promotions, whatever their pay, and of all ministerial and other officers whose pay is not less than Rs 100 per mensem should appear in the Civil List. Any ground of exclusion other than pay below a specified minimum is likely to give rise to doubts in individual cases calling for the orders of Govt. If the minimum pay of Rs 100 suggested above is considered to make the number of officials to be mentioned in the list unduly large, it may be fixed at any other amount that may be considered suitable.

15. The proposed rule would exclude many officers who now find a place in the Civil List eg. Sub-Registrars, certain officers of the Educational Dept. The omission of their Names is not likely to cause any inconvenience as they will appear in the Departmental Gradation lists which have been ordered to be systematically issued at fixed intervals.

16- With regard to the question raised by the Comptroller in the paper under disposal, it seems that the names of Superintendents of the G.T.P. IV. Survey Dept.

I 21) The following are some of the distinguishing features observed in the get-up of the Civil Lists of the several British Provinces and Native States.

1. The India Office List includes the names of the following Ministerial officers.

(i) Clerks of the Office of the Secretary of State.

(ii) Superintendents of the Government of India Secretariats.

The Bengal & Madras Civil lists do not mention (ii).

2. (i) The Bengal Civil List includes the names of Sub Registrars on Rs. 50 and Probationary Sub Registrars on Rs. 30 also. The Madras Civil List makes no mention of them.

(ii) The Bengal Civil List does not shew the names of Officers in the Educational Service drawing less than Rs. 300 while in the Madras list it is observed that those drawing Rs.65 are included.

3. The Gwaliar & Travancore Lists include the names of Excise and Police Inspectors and Forest Rangers. In addition, the Gwalior Civil Lists also include Forest Rangers, Sub

24) The Registrar's note above shows the arrangement followed by the several Governments in the Compilation of their Civil lists. No uniform principle appears to be recognized in deciding what officers or class of officers should be included. So far as our Govt is concerned it would be better to have some simple rule by which the arrangement can be regulated. The rule proposed in the office note viz that only those officers whose pay is Rs 100 or above should be included appears to be a very good one inasmuch as the pay they receive is the only common standard relating by which the status of officers of the different departments can be decided. Invidious distinctions cannot be avoided in any other way.

We cannot omit the names of Subordinate Executive officers drawing a salary of Rs 100 and upwards

Note—Contn. sheet.

25 The majority of the officers now shown in the Civil list answer to this rule, the only exceptions being, certain D.P.W officers (Overseers) & accountants, Operators &c in the Electric Department, Sub Registrars & Certain educational & Military officers. As Separate departmental gradation lists are maintained, there would be no harm in eliminating these low-paid officers.

In the case of Military Officers, a lower scale of pay represents a corresponding higher rank.

26) The rule above enunciated to apply to executive and ministerial officers alike. This would bring on the list, the Superintendents, Managers of certain offices, District Sheristadars, Senior Clerks in all offices in receipt of a pay of Rs 100 who may not after all be many.

I am not in favour of including Sheristadars under this grade, as they are of a different class of officers.

27) The only doubt with regard to this rule is whether the Expression "pay of Rs 100" should mean the pay the parti incumbent is actually drawing or the maximum pay of the office. It would be better to restrict the application to the former class of officers, as otherwise, the Civil list would be unduly long.

28) Coming now to the order in which the Departments may be arranged, the following order is suggested:

Dated the 3rd January 1916.

The non-Gazetted officers of this Department, whose names are at present published in the Quarterly Civil List, are-

(1) Upper Subordinates including Overseers

(2) Superintendents and Drivers of Pumping Installations.

(3) Operators and Line and Lamp Inspectors of the Electrical Department.

2. (1) As regards the Upper Subordinates, although Overseers start on Rs 60, they are included in the Upper Subordinate class under which Supervisors drawing Rs 250 and 300 are brought. Moreover, the maximum pay of Overseers is Rs 100. The sanctioned number of Overseers, as it now stands, is only 18. As the scale of Upper Subordinates will be incomplete if Overseers are left out, their names may continue to be published as hitherto. The Overseers are in charge of Sub Divisions extending over 2 or 3 Taluks and it is necessary that their names should be published in the Civil List, thus affording facilities for the public also to know the names of the Public Works Sub Divisional officers when necessary.

(2) The Drivers of Pumping Stations are entitled to a maximum pay of Rs 150, and they are not generally borne on the printed lists (either of the clerical or the lower subordinate

SIR,

I have the honor to invite your attention to this office letter No. S.A.56/648 of the 24th July 1914, requesting to be informed whether it is necessary to show the names of the Superintendents of the General and Revenue Secretariat in a class by themselves after the list of Amildars or under a separate heading "Superintendents" in pages 3 and 4 of the Civil List and to request the favor of an early reply.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

No. Fl. 3656-7—G. F. 147-16-1, dated 23rd December 1916.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE GOVERNMENT OF HIS HIGHNESS THE MAHARAJA OF MYSORE.

GENERAL AND REVENUE DEPARTMENTS.

Read—

Note dated 10th November 1916, by Mr. K. L. Datta, Special Officer, containing certain suggestions for reducing the size of the Mysore Quarterly Civil List.

Order No. Fl. 3656-7—G. F. 147-16-1, dated 23rd December 1916

Government are pleased to order as follows on the several points noticed in Mr. Datta's note:—

Paragraph 2 of the Note.—The publication may remain quarterly as hitherto, instead of half-yearly as proposed by Mr. Datta.

Paragraph 4.—The revised form suggested in regard to the general list of Assistant Commissioners may be adopted, the departmental lists being arranged vertically without the particulars included in the general list.

Paragraph 5.—The scale of officers given on pages 221 to 247 of the Civil List may be omitted, the same being transferred to the "Manual of Appointments and Allowances."

Paragraph 6.—The lists showing the names of districts, taluks, hoblis, etc. (pages 162 to 179) may likewise be excluded, but published in the proposed District Manual or some other suitable publication.

Paragraph 7.—All appointments, the pay or maximum pay of which is less than Rs. 100 may be excluded, the names of Sub-Registrars being however retained.

Paragraphs 8 and 13.—The distribution lists in pages 180 to 220 referred to may stand, but they should be printed in vertical columns as in the Madras Civil List and restricted to the names of Heads of Departments and Gazetted Officers proper.

Paragraphs 9, 10, 11 and 12.—The proposals made in these paragraphs are generally accepted. In the case of permanent Senior Assistant Commissioners and higher officers, the note of examinations passed may be omitted, the same principle being applied to other departments in the case of appointments in which further promotion does not depend on examinations passed.

2. The Comptroller will take the needful steps to have the next issue of the Civil List published in the form as modified.

J. S. CHAKRAVARTI,
Finl. Secy. to Govt.
